

Undocumented Student Scholarship Treasure Hunt

Scholarship resources for AB 540 students

Start submitting applications one year in advance of when you'll need the funds so you can meet all deadlines

For more resources visit the UCLA Bruin Resource Center website at www.brc.ucla.edu then click "Programs > Undocumented Students" at the top.

Educators for Fair Consideration (E4FC)

Website with over 90 scholarship listings sorted by date, award amount, or field of study. Also includes mini guides on applying for scholarships as an undocumented student.

Act on a Dream - at Harvard College

Searchable database of over 200 scholarships for high school students and undergraduates.

My (Un)Documented Life

Up-to-date information and resources for undocumented students including scholarship listings for graduate and undergraduate students.

10,000 Degrees

Scholarship program for students in financial need with two scholarships specifically for undocumented students. Also includes a database of outside scholarships for undocumented students

Scholarships A-Z

Comprehensive list of scholarships sorted by date including listed requirements for each and whether they are DACA only. Resource for both undergraduate and graduate students.

United We Dream

Blog cataloging stories and news relevant to immigrant youth. Includes posts about scholarship opportunities for undocumented students.

Generation Progress

Blog that contains articles from many different issue affecting students. Includes articles about scholarship opportunities for undocumented students.

Scholarship Resource Center

While this is primarily for for undergraduate students, they can assist with graduate school funding as well. Visit them in person or online at www.scholarshipcenter.ucla.edu. They have books of scholarship listings you cannot find online.

Congress Women Lucille Roybal-Allard's Paying for College Students Resource Guide

50 page list of scholarships for both US citizens and non-citizens. This list is updated every year so be sure to look for the most recent list.

College Green Light's Scholarships for Undocumented Students

Blog post with a list of around 50 scholarships that is updated every year. These scholarships are for both high school students and undergraduates.